PRODUCTION DESCRIPTION

---

The Elgin Theatre Company (ETC) was founded in the spring of 1952. Its first production was in April 1952. For over 50 seasons, ETC has continuously produced high quality adult entertainment for Elgin, IL and the northwest suburbs of Chicago. It is a non-profit theatre. The major functions of the group are production of plays and education in the theatre arts. The group draws actors, singers, dancers, carpenters, and a host of others from Elgin, nearby communities, and from as far away as Chicago. It draws its audience from the same area with most of the people living in and around Elgin.

SHOW SYNOPSIS

Diana, the musical tells the story of Charles and Diana; focusing on their courtship, their marriage and her relationship with her children and the rest of the Royal Family. The musical culminates with her divorce, but ends at the time of her funeral. As the musical progresses it portrays the evolution of the young Diana into the intelligent, mature woman who, becomes arguably the most famous, (certainly one of the most famous), women in the world.
